DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This was originally a 2-1/2 story brick Colonial house altered during Victorian times to Victorian according to sidewall evidence. It is now of three stories, approximately three bays square with a 2-1/2 story "L" shaped wing, two bays wide and approximately five bays long with newer, one story brick side and rear extensions and a third story extension. Front brickwork is laid in Flemish bond with old "grapevine" mortar joints , a moulded water table and a three string belt course crossing beneath  the second story windows. The front entranceway occupies the left bay with a large, six panel door decorated by Greek Key Design panels, a paneled enframing, Victorian "Stick" transom design, and with "Tehan style*" Doric pilasters supporting a moulded flat entablature. This is approached by a marble sill and a low granite porch. All front windows are now of 1/1 sash with those on the first floor having flat jack arches, the second story, regular flat brick arches, and the third story has three pedimented dormers protruding from a slate mansard roof. The first floor of the wing has 6/6 sash and there are 1/1 sash on the second story, both with wood lintels and sills. The rear slate mansard section is lighted by a 1/1 sash peaked dormer window. Rear doors have glass over panels and there are two narrow "lunette" louvers near the top of the right wall. Topping the mansard sections is a low "A" frame roof with a wide enclosed chimney rising on the right side. The wing has a steep slope, metal "A" frame roof. The front overhang cornice line supports the mansard and is decorated with square modillions. The rear roofline has a moulded cornice. This house rests on a low field-stone foundation. There is a brick dooryard patio and a long yard with tall trees.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

*This old house of Colonial design was purchased by John Tehan, contractor for the nearby St. John's Church, who also built most of the large, three story Victorian houses on this side of the block, C1859. He apparently decided to modernize his "new" home by adding, among other features, his version of a beautiful doorway with pilasters having returns and headed by a flat entablature--Greek Style, as on most of the homes he built nearby. This house adds a sense of age to this block and is well maintained. The house was built by one of the early architects of Frederick--Lawrence Brangle.
